

San Sebastian, Bordeaux and The Dordogne

An Epicurean Adventure

May 12 – 26, 2021

San Sebastian is a spectacular start to our Epicurean Adventure, with two of the World's Best Restaurants on the itinerary and ample leisure time in one of Spain's most beautiful cities.

From there, we'll continue on to France, where we will indulge in the pleasures of southwestern France, its exquisite restaurants, luxurious chateau living and magnificent wines. During our epicurean adventure, we will visit the vineyards, linger in medieval villages, explore the markets and follow man's prehistoric origins.

Escorted by Laurel Pine and Mark Anderson, this unique, all-inclusive, small group luxury tour features exclusive tastings, meals at Michelin-starred restaurants, and accommodations at five star properties.

San Sebastian, Bordeaux and The Dordogne will be limited to 14 participants. If you are interested in this tour please immediately notify laurel@laurelpine.com. We hope you will join us!

Day 2, Thursday, May 13: Bilbao tour and Lunch at #3 Restaurant in the World

Enjoy breakfast at your leisure prior to our guided walking tour of Bilbao. Our private Motor Coach will take us through the beautiful countryside for a fabulous lunch at Asador Etxebarri ( Michelin; #3 on the World's Best list). From there, we'll continue on to San Sebastian and check into the lovely Hotel Maria Cristina (5 Star). After a brief introduction to San Sebastian, you'll have the evening free to explore this charming sea-side town.

Day 3, Friday, May 14: San Sebastian and #7 Restaurant in the World

Spend the morning sleeping in, shopping in San Sebastian's boutiques and gourmet stores, or simply relaxing. Early afternoon, we'll be heading back out to the countryside for lunch—a lunch that is guaranteed to be interesting and provocative! Mugaritz (Michelin and #7 on the World's Best list) is known for questioning the logic of the gastronomic world by rethinking textures, flavors, and aromas. After our 20-course lunch, and upon return to our hotel, we'll conclude the day with an exciting tasting of some of the most prestigious wines in Spain.

Day 4, Saturday, May 15: Travel to St Emilion, Three Michelin Star Lunch

This morning we say farewell to San Sebastian and Spain, and continue on to France. Our first stop is Bayonne, where we will try the famous ham and see a demonstration. On our way to Bordeaux, we'll have lunch at Michel Guerard's Gastronomic Restaurant, where history, nature, culinary creation and French tradition are combined at this Michelin starred restaurant (40 years with three stars!) Our private coach will then take us to our luxurious hotel in Saint Emilion, a well-located Relais and Chateau property, Hostellerie de Plaisance (5 Star). After settling into our rooms, we will gather again for a wine tasting with light appetizers in Saint Emilion.

(B, L)

Hotel: Hostellerie de Plaisance

Hotel: The Hostellerie de Plaisance offers an exceptional experience located on the right bank of the Garonne river in the center of the medieval city of Saint-Emilion.

Day 5, Sunday, May 16: Underground Monuments and Wine in Saint-Emilion

Our day in the medieval village of Saint Emilion will begin with a guided tour of fascinating underground monuments, including the Monolithic Church, carved from limestone rock in the 11th century; the Hermitage of Saint-Emilion, the cave home of the 8th century monk after which the town is named; Trinity Chapel, with its 14th century frescoes; and the Catacombs. In the afternoon, we'll visit the remarkable estate of Chateau de Ferrand, taste some of their Grand Cru Classé wines, and enjoy stunning panoramic views over the valley. Dinner will be at a charming restaurant in the medieval village of Saint Emilion.

Day 6, Monday, May 17: An Exclusive Day at Rémy Martin in Cognac

Today is a full-day exclusive tour, lunch and tasting (including Louis XIII) at Rémy Martin in Cognac. Rémy Martin's fine Champagne Cognac products come from the two best growth areas of the Cognac region, Grande Champagne and Petite Champagne ("Champagne" defines the unique type of chalk-flecked soil that aids in the ripening of grapes). The eaux-de-vie that comes exclusively from these crus in the heart of the Cognac region offer a palette of unique flavors characteristic of Rémy Martin's prestigious collection. At the end of the day, we'll return to Saint Emilion for an evening of leisure.

Hotel: InterContinental Bordeaux is located right in the heart of the golden triangle, generally known as the « quartier des Grands Hommes », the historic hub of the city of Bordeaux.

We will enjoy dinner with paired wines at Le Pressoir d'Argent Gordon Ramsey in Bordeaux

Day 8, Wednesday, May 19: 14,000 BC Cave Paintings and Truffle Lunch

The mark of early man is present throughout the Dordogne; evidence of his art and tools stems from Paleolithic times. Most intriguing and furthest advanced of the early peoples were the Cro-Magnons whose recorded elements of their existence adorn the cave walls of the Dordogne. The most famous cave paintings are those in Lascaux Cave near Montignac, dating from about 14,000 B.C. The cave closed in 1963 to preserve the paintings. We will visit Lascaux II, a brilliant facsimile near the original cave. Afterward, we'll enjoy a truffle tasting lunch in Les Eyzies at Les Glycines. From there, we will continue to LaCave to check into Chateau de la Treyne, a charming Relais and Chateau castle, overlooking the Dordogne. You'll have time to enjoy the beautiful grounds before we gather for dinner at the hotel's restaurant.

Day 9, Thursday, May 20: Rocamadour Village and Farm Tour

Rocamadour is a UNESCO World Heritage site, built on the face of a sheer 400-foot cliff. Once a gathering place for pilgrims trekking to see the Black Madonna, Rocamadour is one of Europe's most stunning sites. Named after Saint Amadour, a pious hermit, the town is positioned over the river Alzou. Towers, oratories and old buildings rise in stages on the side of the cliff above the river's gorge. Our guide will show us the village highlights including the Chapel of Notre Dame with its 13th century chapel complex, and you'll have time to explore on your own. Rocamadour is famous for its cheese and local walnut pastries/cookies. In the afternoon, we'll tour a local farm and taste their products, followed by a group dinner in our hotel's *Michelin restaurant.

Hotel: Chateau de la Treyne

Day 10, Friday, May 21: Prehistoric Drawings, Medieval Village and The Lot River

This morning, we will see the caves of Pech Merle, which are famous for their prehistoric drawings of spotted horses and prints of human hands. After the tour at Pech Merle, we will visit Saint-Cirq-Lapopie, one of the prettiest villages in France, perched on a steep cliff 10 meters above the Lot River. Lunch will be at La Table du Producteur, a shop specializing in foie gras and duck products with a tiny well-rated restaurant. After lunch, we will have free time to explore the medieval village, shop and walk through the picturesque alleyways.

Day 11, Saturday, May 22: Sarlat Market Day and Foie Gras Farm

Saturday is market day in Sarlat, capital of "Black Perigord", a beautifully preserved ochre stone medieval village with narrow cobblestone streets bordered by Gothic and Renaissance style homes. Sarlat is most sought out for its products of the Dordogne and Perigord, such as walnut oils and walnut liqueur, black truffles, foie gras and canned confits d'oie, dried mushrooms, chabichou cheese and a chocolate treat called ephemeres, all which can be found in abundance at the colorful weekly market. In the afternoon, following free time at the Sarlat market, we will visit a foie gras farm. Dinner will be at Sarlat's best restaurant, *Michelin, Le Grand Bleu.

Day 12, Sunday, May 23: Sauternes and Chateau d'Yquem

This morning we will return to Bordeaux on our private coach. Upon arrival in Sauternes, we'll enjoy lunch overlooking the famous vineyards of Sauternes. Sauternes is a picturesque wine region, famous for prestigious sweet white wine producers such as Chateau d'Yquem. The rains, the mists, the humidity and the climate in this region, all help foster the necessary mold, (botrytis, also known as "noble rot") that leads to the unfortified, but lusciously sweet wines produced there. We will tour and taste wines at Chateau d'Arche, a small, high quality producer and Chateau d'Yquem, the most famous producer, known world-wide for its complex and pricey wines noted for their exceptional longevity. Dinner will be at the hotel's fine restaurant, Michelin star La Grand Vigne (B,L,D)

Day 14, Tuesday, May 25: Medoc Chateaux Wines and Michelin () Dining

On our final day of the tour, we will sample some of the magnificent "reds" of Haut Medoc with tastings at several producers. The history of growing grapes to make wine dates from the era of Louis XIV in southwest France. Driving along the Route des Grands-Crus we'll encounter many houses, the most famous of which are Chateau Margaux, Chateau Latour, Chateau Mouton-Rothschild and Chateau Lafite-Rothschild. We'll break for lunch at an authentic French restaurant. At the end of the day, our farewell dinner, will be at Michelin star, Chateau Cordeillan Bages, one of the best restaurants in the Bordeaux region. (B,L,D)
